

24 April 2018

Mrs D Fernandez
Divisional Manager
Agrifood Technology
260 Princes Highway
WERRIBEE VIC 3030

Dear Mrs Fernandez

ACCREDITATION NO.	2726
FACILITY NAME:	Agrifood Technology
SITE NO, NAME:	2719, Werribee Laboratory

Thank you for your submission, received 22 January 2018, satisfactorily responding to the conditions raised in the report on the November 2017 reassessment in relation to the testing of peanut allergens.

I am pleased to inform you that the accreditation of your facility has been extended to include peanut allergen testing.

Continuance of accreditation is dependent on adherence to the current NATA Accreditation Criteria, including the NATA Rules.

Should the Members Portal have been utilised in relation to this activity, please ensure that you have copies of documents lodged in the 'My Jobs' folder for your permanent records. The associated job folder and its contents will be removed in due course.

Scope of Accreditation

Your scope of accreditation has been updated to include the following testing:

ISO/IEC 17025 (2005) - Food and Beverage
ISO/IEC 17025
Service	Product	Determination	Technique	Procedure
Analysis for allergenic proteins	Baked goods; Biscuits; Cake mix; Cereal products; Chocolate; Confectionary; Cookies; Ice cream; Milk formula; Muesli bars; Raw meat; Rice and rice flour; Sausages; Seasoning products; Spices; Yoghurt	Peanut allergens; Peanut protein	ELISA	in-house method TP/357

Your current scope of accreditation, dated 24 April 2018, will be available on the NATA website within one business day of this letter.

Due to the extensions to your scope of accreditation, your fees will be adjusted and you will receive an invoice in due course.

On behalf of NATA, may I take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for the cooperation and hospitality during the recent to your facility. If you have any queries with the information contained in this letter please contact Judy Smart at our Melbourne office.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Mark Womell', written in a cursive style.

per Jennifer Evans
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER